

Listening Skills for Community Organising – One Day Course

Free course for residents in Wirral

When? Tuesday 28th August 2018 9AM-4PM

Where? Leasowe Millennium Centre

This interactive quality assured community organising course will help you to develop the skills and confidence to start listening to people to build relationships and activate people as part of a community organising strategy.

During this course you will

- learn the importance of listening to people in community organising.
- begin to develop the skills and self-awareness required for listening
- understand how reflection is used to improve practice
- plan a listening campaign and learn about the practicalities of listening in a community.
- consider your own next steps in listening & community organising

This fun, energetic course introduces you to some key skills in Community Organising.

Community Organising is the work of bringing people together to take action around their common concerns and overcome social injustice. Community Organisers reach out and listen, connect and motivate people to build their collective power.

"I loved the training. I learned a lot and cannot wait to put it into practice. The listening exercise made me reflect on how I have been listening to others and sometimes not hearing them."

Sign up now and begin your journey in community organising!

We aim to make this course fully accessible. Please speak to us about any needs you have.
